"Pray for the peace of Jerusalem; may those who love her be at peace." (Psalm 122:6)

Note:

The phrase “Sha’alu shalom Yirushalayim” (שָׁאלוּ שָּׁלוֹם يִירוּשָׁלַיִם) actually reveals the Messiah Yeshua! The word sha’alu (שָׁאלוּ) actually means “ask” (as in ask a sheilah (שֶׁיָּלָה), a question), and “shalom” (שלום) is a Name of Yeshua, since He indeed is Sar Shalom (שם שלום), the Prince of Peace (Isa. 9:6). The word Jerusalem (ירושלם) means “teaching of peace” (the “Jeru-” at the beginning (יְרוּשָׁלַיִם) comes from the same root as Torah (יָרָה, which means “teaching”), so the phrase could be construed, “ask about the Prince of Peace and His Teaching.” At any rate, we know that Yeshua is indeed the King of Jerusalem (Matt. 5:35) who will soon return to reign over all the earth.
