Devakut

Cleaving to God

“Cleaving” to God is called devakut (דבוק), a word that derives from davak (דבק), a verb meaning to “cling,” to “stick” like glue, to be attached in devotion...

דבקת نفسך לארץ
ב נפשך ותינחך
dah·ve·kah · naf·shee · a·cha·rey·kha bee · tahm·khah · ye·mee·ne·kha

Cleaving to God

Yeshua demonstrated God's own devakut for us by “cleaving” to the cross as full payment for our sin. Because of His loyal love for us, we can now experience “at-one-ment” and true communion with God (see John 17:21-23).

‘My soul cleaves to You; Your right hand upholds me...”

(Psalm 63:8)

ékollήθη ἡ ψυχή μου ὑπέω σου ἐμοὶ ἀντελάβετο ἡ ἀξία σου (LXX)

www.hebrew4christians.com